

Family Friendly Programming 2017
Weekends in July and August – 1:00pm – 3:00pm

FREE for seasons pass holders, included in regular admission
Please note: all activities are drop-in, parents/guardians must attend with children

Saturday, July 15th – What is it? What was it used for?

Our classic and hilarious artifact guessing game. Do you know what all of these things were once used for?

Sunday, July 23rd (Family Fun Day – Kids' admission to the Ranch is free!) – Western Watercolour

Get inspired by the artworks of Rob Dinwoodie, now on view in the Greenhow Art Gallery. Make your own western-inspired watercolour, or add watercolour to a Dinwoodie pencil sketch.

Sunday, July 30th – Handmade Horsepower

Take a visit to our Stagecoach house to see all the different kinds of horse-drawn vehicles, and then make your own cardstock stagecoach or covered wagon.

Sunday, August 6th – OK Keepsakes

In honour of our 150th birthday this summer, come on by and make your own “OK” Keepsake!

Saturday, August 12th – Paper Basket Making

Get inspired by our local First Nations and learn how to weave a simple basket—or design your own!

Sunday, August 20th (Family Fun Day– Kids' admission to the Ranch is free!) – Pastel Landscapes

Try your hand at landscape drawing, just like one of our Leading Ladies, the Baroness Herry, did more than 50 years ago! Check out the Baroness' story in the Leading Ladies exhibit, along with all the other amazing women from the Okanagan Valley.

Saturday, August 26th – Scavenger Hunt

Search the Ranch for clues that might lead you to a prize!
